

Missionary-Physician's Story Told on Television

Seventh-day Adventist missionary physician, Dr. Stanley Gordon Sturges, who recently received an award from the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce as one of the Ten Outstanding Young Men of the Year, was interviewed by Pastor and Mrs. W. A. Fagal, Sunday, during the "Faith for Today" television program.

On Jan. 20 at Santa Monica, Dr. Sturges appeared with nine other outstanding young Americans to receive the "Jaycee" award for 1961. In the exclusive group were leading young scientists, businessmen, and government officials such as Virgil Grissom, space astronaut; Newton N. Minow, chairman of the Federal Communications Commission, and Frank Ray Keyser Jr., of Vermont, youngest governor in the United States.

DR. STURGES is admirably tabbed as "Mr. America" by the Naples where he serves as director of the Himalayan Medical Mission. He is the lone practitioner of Western medicine to the half million inhabitants that reside in the eastern district of this land that lies near the Red China border.

Known in and out of missionary circles as "Dr. Stan," he has been tagged as the counterpart of the late Dr. Tom Dooley because of his pioneer medical work in this colorful mountain country. To begin his venture he had to overcome the tight security regulations which prohibited the setting up of enterprises of foreign interests.

ANOTHER regulation required the setting up of hospitals on government property, and available government land seemed to be non-existent. God's providence, working through the people of Benapa, a village of 4,000 at an altitude of 4,700 feet, made the purchase of this land possible. Then a large gift of a Spring-

Baptists To Meet Saturday

The 26th annual meeting of the Harbor Baptist Assn., of the American Baptist Convention will convene at the First Baptist Church of Lynwood at 3 p.m. Saturday.

Miss Marian Beebe, from Burma, will be the featured speaker for the afternoon. Representing Western Avenue Baptist Church will be the Rev. Charles T. Hughes Jr., pastor, singing two numbers. The Treble-Aires, also from the local church, will sing in the afternoon and at the banquet.

Dr. Doward McBain, recently returned from a trip to New Delhi, India, will speak at the evening meeting.

The group attending from Western Avenue Baptist Church will include Mrs. Edward Enrietta, president of Harbor Baptist Women, who will present her report and also preside at the 5:30 p.m. banquet; Ralph Johnston, president of Harbor Baptist Men, presenting the men's report; the Rev. Mr. Hughes, who will be honored as a new pastor and who is on the ballot for vice-moderator.

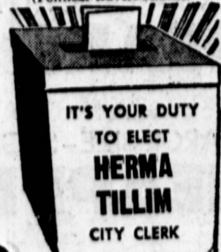

Temple Slates Costume Party

May Co.'s Brunmark to Retire This Summer; Successor Named

Walter J. Brunmark will retire this summer as president and general manager of the Los Angeles May Co. and a vice president of the May Department Stores Co. and will be succeeded in Los Angeles by Geoffrey Swaeb, also a May Co. vice president, Morton D. May, president of the May Department Stores Co., announced Tuesday.

The new chief executive officer of the Los Angeles May

Co. has for the last five years been vice president and general manager of the Hecht Co. in Baltimore, the name under which the May Co. stores in that city are operated. Swaeb became a May Co. vice president in 1959 when the Hecht Co. was consolidated with the May Department Stores Co.

LOS ANGELES is the largest division of 11 metropolitan areas served by the May Department Stores Co. and Brunmark has been the company's chief operating executive there for 16 years. He will remain a member of the May Co.'s board of directors.

Prior to joining Hecht Co. 12 years ago, Swaeb held executive positions with I. Miller & Sons, the Florsheim Shoe Co., in Chicago, and Thalheimers of Richmond, Va., and was general merchandise manager of the Pizitz Department Store in Birmingham, Ala. He was a member of the board of directors of the Hecht Co. at the time of its consolidation with the May Department Stores Co. The Hecht Co. stores in Baltimore consist of one downtown department store and five branch stores.
